

Everything Is Changing

JJ Heller

I'm trying to follow
I'm trying my best to do what you said
But what about tomorrow
Are you sure I'm not in over my head

Everything is changing all around me
Is this the ending of a dream
I thought I was doing what you wanted
It isn't as easy as it seemed

I'm losing my vision
I'm fighting the doubting with all that I am
It's been awhile since you last gave me something
To go on
Tell me it's not the end

It seemed like I did everything right
Now I see that it's all wrong
Do you want me to move on
Can you tell me where I belong
