

The Pretty & The Plain

JJ Heller

You found me in the garden
I was crying over your grave
It sounded like music when you spoke my name

I know you came for the pretty and the plain
I hear you calling out my name
I know you came for the sinner and the saint
And I will never be the same

The first time that you saw me
I was wrestling demons on my own
You gave me my freedom
And I will never be, never be alone

CHORUS

Hallelujah, I will never be the same
Hallelujah, amen
Hallelujah, I will never be the same
I will never be the same
