

You Tell Me So

JJ Heller

How high, how deep is your love for me
And you will never let me go
Light or darkness, doesn't matter
Because you will never let me go

And I will never cry alone
And You will always be my home
And You tell me so

You love everyone that I love
More than I ever could
Though my days are filled with trouble
Lord I know you're good

CHORUS

Little ones to you belong
When I am weak, you are strong,
