

Everybody has the reason
Everyone will have their season
'Cause nobody knows where we'll go

Everybody will be happy
Everyone will see what I see
Nobody knows where we'll go

Tenderly to the sea
Veiled in silk, you and me
Under stars so high above
Dust from eternal love

Someone with real emotion
Someone with true devotion
Can see all the marvels I can't see

Someone who's strong and willing Someone who'll keep on winning
He'll show you where you should go

Tenderly to the sea
Veiled in silk, you and me
Under stars so high above
Dust from eternal love

Tenderly to the sea
Veiled in silk, you and me
Under stars so high above
Dust from eternal love

Love
Love
Love
