Everybody has the reason Everyone will have their season 'Cause nobody knows where we'll go

Everybody will be happy Everyone will see what I see Nobody knows where we'll go

Tenderly to the sea Veiled in silk, you and me Under stars so high above Dust from eternal love

Someone with real emotion Someone with true devotion Can see all the marvels I can't see

Someone who's strong and willing Someone who'll keep on winning He'll show you where you should go

Tenderly to the sea
Veiled in silk, you and me
Under stars so high above
Dust from eternal love

Tenderly to the sea
Veiled in silk, you and me
Under stars so high above
Dust from eternal love

Love Love
