

Take You Down

JLS

Lets go
Shes looking in my eyes while shes flicking her hair back
Her body start to wind she making it clear that
She wants to put it on me should I react
Cos she wanna lock me up lock me up

Go on lock me up throw away the keys
Looking for my heart couldn't find it on ebay
Tearing through the crowds
Just to bring her closer
Like to throw it down

I know that you want me to yourself
I'll be your one and only tonight
No you wont be lonely
When we dance I'll be loving you slowly tonight

Lets go at it I'll play the fanatic
Girl I wanna take you out
And take you down
Be my rockstar chase you like a cop car
Girl I wanna take you out
Then take you down
Baby we can change roles
You can play my lover
I can play yours
Lets go at it I'll play the fanatic
Girl I wanna take you out
Take you down

She touching my body got it hotter than venus
I whisper in her ear let her in on the secret
She licking on her lips cos I got her excited
She wanna lock me up lock me up

Go on lock me up throw away the keys
Looking for my heart couldn't find it on ebay
Tearing through the crowds
Just to bring her closer
Like to throw it down

I know that you want me to yourself
I'll be your one and only tonight
No you wont be lonely
When we dance I'll be loving you slowly tonight

Lets go at it I'll play the fanatic

And take you down

Take you down

You could be a thousand miles away from me
When I close my eyes at night
I still feel you close woah woah woah woah woah
You make me say
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
You make me say
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
