

All Apologies

JMSN

Sooner or later everybody's gotta leave
And it ain't about nothin no
It's just a harsh reality
I know you're probably thinking
No, that's not the way it's gotta be
Depends on how you take it though
Cause this could all just be a dream
Sometimes it seems that this could last forever
But no, not me
Im gonna find something better than...

[Hook:]

You
See, it was never up to me
All apologies

Sooner or later everybody's feelings start to change
You start to get a vision of your soul inside a cage
The outside's nice, but its dark at the center
And all my life I wanted to do better than...

[Hook x2:]

You
See, it was never up to me
All apologies

It's time to wake up
Cause I'm not enough for...
You
It was never up to me
All apologies
