

All this darkness won't turn light
And all this wrongs won't make it right
I watch the sun fade into night again
And everyday just feels the same
And all these drugs won't numb the pain
I look outside here comes the rain again

It's falling (3x)
It's falling again
It's falling (3x)
It's falling again

I see the sadness in your eyes
There's a darkness deep inside
But you act like everything is fine again
See everyone's afraid of time
We all do things and don't know why
Go far and wide to forget what we can

But we're falling
We're falling (2x)
We're falling again
But we're falling
We're falling (2x)
We're falling again

And our lives are wasted on the things we think we should be
Tell me why they've painted over everything we should see

And we're falling, we're falling
And I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling again
Yeah, I'm falling, falling,
Yeah, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling again
Yeah, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling
Yeah, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling.
