

Wasted Love

JMSN

Like grains of sand inside my hand,
It's falling away from me now.
Falling away from me now.
A wise man would understand,
But I just disagree now.
I just disagree now.

See, the whole entire world isn't quite enough.
No it's not enough.
I want to feel something that's not just wasted love.
Just wasted love.

Like grains of sand inside my hand,
It's falling away from me now.

See, the whole entire world isn't quite enough.
No it's not enough.
I want to feel something that's not just wasted love.
Just wasted love.

The world isn't quite enough.
All of this wasted love.

And when I find you everything fades away.

Everything fades away.
