

It Gets Better

Jo Dee Messina

This old world can be cruel sometimes
When you're looking for answers
You can't seem to find
No one understands what you're going through

Oh I know it can get lonely out there
When you feel like nobody cares
Well you look around thinking
If they only knew well I do

I've felt the chill of this world cut down to the bone
I've walked many a mile down this road on my own
I've been through hell on my knees come face to face with the devil
And I know that it's hard to believe but it gets better

Time is a healer but we can't see how
When you're caught in the moment
And the hurting is now we don't wanna see that
Maybe some things weren't meant to figure out

I've felt the chill of this world cut down to the bone
I've walked many a mile down this road on my own
I've been through hell on my knees come face to face with the devil
And I know that it's hard to believe but it gets better

This old world can be cruel sometimes
When you're looking for answers
Well just keep in mind no you're not alone
We're all trying to find our way through this life

I've felt the chill of this world cut down to the bone
I've walked many a mile down this road on my own
I've been through hell on my knees come face to face with the devil
And I know that it's hard to believe but it gets better
