This old worls can be cruel sometimes
When you're looking for answers
You can't seem to find
No one understands what you're going through

Oh I know it can get lonely out there When you feel like nobody cares Well you look around thinking If they only knew well I do

I've felt the chill of this world cut down to the bone
I've walked many a mile down this road on my own
I've been through hell on my knees come face to face with the devil

And I know that it's hard to believe but it gets better

Time is a healrr but we can't see how When you're caught in the moment And the hurting is now we don't wanna see that Maybe some things weren't meant to figure out

I've felt the chill of this world cut down to the bone
I've walked many a mile down this road on my own
I've been through hell on my knees come face to face with the devil

And I know that it's hard to believe but it gets better

This old world can be cruel sometimes
When you're looking for answers
Well just keep in mind no you're not alone
We're all trying to find our way through this life

I've felt the chill of this world cut down to the bone
I've walked many a mile down this road on my own
I've been through hell on my knees come face to face with the devil

And I know that it's hard to believe but it gets better
