

Different

Joan Jett

Have you ever taken flack from the bullies on attack
Cause you're different
They laugh and call you names but that ain't no badge of shame
Just cause you're different (show 'em Dougie)
People gonna stare, you unsettle them and scare 'em
When you're different Walking down the street when you pass they take a peek
There's something different

Live your life outside the box
Blow off all the empty talk
They focus on the things you're not Just walk your walk

Age is not in years, it sits between your ears
You see it different
It's fun to break the mold and see it take ahold
And now you're different, too...

Yeah when you're walking down the block, the traffic starts and stops
Cause you ooze difference
Look, they treat you rough, but you're tough enough and we're all different, YEAH!!
□ I Know What I Know

I watch your conversation flow, the in's and out's
In the end it goes to show that, I'm right to doubt (cuz)

I know, I know, I know, I know what I know

You tell me things don't work that way, that I'm so wrong
The narcissistic things you say, they don't belong
I know, I know, I know, I know what I know

Now I see your tricks, that you can't fix you're in denial

Intuition is my guide, you've got no hope
And now you swear you never lie, like I'm some dope
