

Hard to Grow Up

Joan Jett

Wake up feeling crazy
Keep losing people, just lost my mom
So difficult to ... on that they're gone
I could go out and party
But nothing kills my pain
So helpless and there's no one I can blame

And it's hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up
Hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up
Yeah

Willing for tomorrow, but living day today
Playing hard has always been my way
Now many things are changing
But still they're stay the same
But now my life is much more than a game

Don't you know it's hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up
Hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up
Hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up
Hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up

Everyday
Feeling f-f-far away

How do we end this story, my friend?
How does it ends, the story, my friend?
How do we end this story, my friend?

Hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up
Hard to grow
Hard to grow up, grow up
Show up, show up
So hard to grow up
Yeah
