

Misunderstood

Joan Jett

It was hard to get along when I was still in school
I never meant to do no wrong but I broke all the rules
An' I was prone to non-conformin', but what harm did I do?
I could see the world was crazy an' I was crazy too
Misunderstood with no one I could tell
Misunderstood by people I know well

Then I thought when I joined a band that I would finally fit
We tried to stand for somethin' good an' people made fun of it
I stuck it out as long as I could but I knew it was time to go
Then I was back out on the street feeling really low

Misunderstood with no one I could tell
Misunderstood by people I know well
Misunderstood an' nothin' seems to help
Misunderstood but I can't be someone else

I try to say where I belong an' live the way I should
But everything just turns out wrong an' I'm always misunderstoo

Wake up, Ricky solo!

I hate the way people look at me they thing that I'm no good
Maybe someday I'll make them see that I'm only misunderstood
It wasn't easy stayin' strong when I was on my own
It got me nuts when I was young now I'm almost grown
If I can have ya by my side it'd be so good for me
As long as you can understand then I will never be

Misunderstood with no one I could tell
Misunderstood by people I know well

Misunderstood an' nothin' seems to help
Misunderstood but I can't be someone else
