

Stand Up For Yourself

Joan Jett

Time is a healer of all wounds
I know I won't forget you, you're extra cruel
Just in time I was lucky to discover
That you lie and you hide behind others

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

I see you are so small you have no sense
And you try to be bigger at my expense
Now I know you are not what you pretend
Ain't no way, I will nail you in the end

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
Stand up for yourself
