Stand Up For Yourself

Time is a healer of all wounds I know I won't forget you, you're extra cruel Just in time I was lucky to discover That you lie and you hide behind others

Stand up for yourself Stand up for yourself Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself Stand up for yourself Why don't you stand up for yourself

I see you are so small you have no sense And you try to be bigger at my expense Now I know you are not what you pretend Ain't no way, I will nail you in the end

Stand up for yourself Stand up for yourself Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself Stand up for yourself Why don't you stand up for yourself

Stand up for yourself Stand up for yourself Stand up for yourself Stand up for yourself
