Broken Wings

Joan Osborne

Somebody broke your wings, little bird, you can't fly
Somebody hurt you bad, beaten down and left to cry
And the price you'll have to pay
You'll be paying in years of your life

Somebody is to blame, don't you see, I feel insane
Somebody got away and it makes me feel sad
And the price you'll have to pay
You'll be paying in years of your life

Somebody's got to help you
I believe I love you so
Somebody's gonna touch you
Don't believe I'll let you go

And the love I had to give
I'll be givin' in years of my life
And the love I had to give
I'll be givin' in years of my life
