

Can't Say No

Joan Osborne

And if you say to me it's wrong, I know
But here we are and I refuse to go
I can't go on without the love we make
Your touch is all I need to cure this day

I can't say no, how hard I've tried
How long I've run to try and hide
How deep my love, so sweet tonight
I can't say no anymore

And if you say to me it's all a dream
Then let me sleep so happily deceived
Don't wake me up without the love we make
Your touch is all I need to cure this day

I can't say no, how hard I've tried
How long I've run to try and hide
How deep my love, so sweet tonight
I can't say no anymore

I can't say no, I can't say no
I can't say no anymore
I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say

I can't say no, I can't say no
I can't say no anymore
I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say

I can't say no, I can't say no
I can't say no anymore
I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say

I can't say no, I can't say no
I can't say no anymore
I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say

I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say
I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say
I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say
I can't say no, I can't say no, I can't say
