

Game Of Love

Joan Osborne

You got that certain little somethin' that really turns me on
You can make me do right or you can make me do wrong
If you really mean I'm the best thing you ever found
You can prove it by being true and never playing around

Just like you can cheat on me, I can cheat on you
There's no rule says the game of love can't be played by two
Can't be played, can't be played, can't be played by two

You can go shopping in the street, trying to bargain up on some thin' new
But what's out there for you men is out there for us women too
Like a dog that crawls around and he licks his bone
If the shoe don't fit the size, why keep trying it on?

Just like you can cheat on me, I can cheat on you
There's no rule says the game of love can't be played by two

Like the old saying of give and take, you're never too old to le arn
But when you start putting your hand in fire, you know you gonn a get burned
But if you wanna do unto me like I do unto you There's no chance that this romance can ever be broken in two

Just like you can cheat on me, I can cheat on you There's no rule says the game of love can't be played by two, c ome on

See I've been hurt so many times but somehow I pull through But the stakes of love are just too high for me to gamble with you
I'm not tryin' to play hard to get but I want you to understand
If you want a do right woman you gotta be a do right man

Just like you can cheat on me, I can cheat on you
There's no rule says the game of love can't be played by two
Can't be played, can't be played, can't be played by two
Can't be played, can't be played, can't be played by two
Can't be played, can't be played, can't be played by two
Can't be played, can't be played, can't be played by two
