

Righteous Love

Joan Osborne

I was a troubled soul
I had a worried mind Drifting from place to place
I was the restless kind Right there in front to me bright as the light of day you saw a broken girl
You loved me anyway

And if I sprouted wings
I would not be amazed cause faith is a mystery that rocks me for days and days and day and I could be in the street
I could be on a train or struck in some doorway down in the pouring rain Now there is not one place that doesn't feel like home No matter where I go
I know I'm not alone

I've never been so sure of love

And if I sprouted wings
I would not be amazed
rocks me for days and days and day Oh you can ask me once
And I will tell you twice No one's convincing me this isn't paradise
And if I cause you pain I'd only hurt myself cause we have a righteous love I feel for on one else

I've never been so sure of love
