Save Me From Being Alone

Jocelyn Enriquez

To live in a house not a home I've counted my tears falling down each night for all these yea rs I can't believe it ends like this We've gone on our own separate ways to find ourselves again Where should I go from here can I live here without your love Somehow someday I'll make it through Please help me ease the pain I'm lost I can't find my way Hope and pray it will end in time the pain inside Can somebody hear I'm crying for shelter Please help me see this through A world that can no longer feel Seems that they have abandoned me forgotten me Do I blame myself Save me from being alone How can you mend a lonely soul Trying to leave the past the sorrow and the lies How can I forgive someone who just doesn't understand That true love is gone away Maybe it's for the best to live these lives on our own To say goodbye still I wonder why Please help me ease the pain I'm lost I can't find my way Hope and pray it will end in time the pain inside Can somebody hear I'm crying for shelter Please help me see this through A world that can no longer feel Seems that they have abandoned me forgotten me Do I blame myself Save me from being alone (To live in a house (Without your love) (Still wonder why) (Can somebody hear) (Can somebody hear) (I'm crying for shelter) Save me from being alone
