I Know Where I Belong

Joe Bonamassa

Oh my baby, It's been a long time comin' yeah yeah, I'm on my back home to you. Oh, This time I stepped up to plate yeah, I didn't mean to do you no harm baby.

Situations change yeah yeah, I make amends because I'm strong. All my friend have helped me, I know where I belong.

I declare, I've been alone without you too long. If I call will you be there? Oh next time I'll make no mistakes yeah, I won't leave you like I did before baby.

Situations change yeah yeah, I make amends because I'm strong. All my friend have helped me, I know where I belong.

Oh baby you, You knew I was long gone, But did you ever once shed a tear? Oh your life is like a prison baby yeah yeah, I never meant to waste your precious time.

Situations change yeah yeah, I make amends because I'm strong. All my friend have helped me, I know where I belong.
