

Waiting for Me

Joe Bonamassa

Maybe I was wishin', for a little bit more
Even though I didn't want to be the one to kick down that door
Baby I was prayin', a prayin' to believe
There was something for - something more - out there waiting for me

'Cuz maybe I'm crazy, for chasing that dream
It hasn't been easy, like some make it seem
I can't help but feeling, my best is yet to be
Cuz somewhere there's something better waiting for me

Should I just be happy, with nowhere to go?
And no mystery calling me to the great unknown?
Should I keep pretending, pretending to see?
To live a lie - live and die - no that just ain't me

'Cuz maybe I'm crazy, for chasing that dream
It hasn't been easy, like some make it seem
I can't help but feeling, the best is yet to be
Cuz somewhere there's something better waiting for me

You can call me greedy - come along or leave me
There's somewhere that I gotta go yeah
But I don't know the reason, but that's what keeps me breathin'
It's the only thing I've ever known -- yeah!

Maybe I'm crazy, for chasing that dream
It hasn't been easy, like some make it seem
I can't help but feeling, my best is yet to be
Cuz somewhere there's something better waiting for me

No it hasn't been easy, like some make it seem...
Yeah I'm crazy for chasin' that dream...
No that just ain't me...
Like some make it seem...

But somewhere there's something better waiting for me
