

Impossible Girl

Joe Brooks

An impossible girl to love an impossible girl to leave
Someone you can never never let go
Telling words that you never said telling lies like you won't believe She's a car crash you can't look away look away from

She's undeniable when she's not the one to blame
She's underneath your skin but she'll never take your name in vain
In vain in vain
Impossible girl yeah yeah yeah yeah uhh

Unpredictable like the sea she's a wave falling under me
Let's hope this boat floats don't sink to the floor
With a skip full of loud and grace an untellable mark she makes Here in my heart let it break that's what hearts are for

She's undeniable when she's not the one to blame
She's underneath your skin but she'll never take your name in vain
In vain in vain
Impossible girl

She leaves her honey drop for me
The sweetest there could ever be
The only taste that i will ever need
And that's just fine by me
That's just fine

She's undeniable when she's not the one to blame
She's underneath your skin but she'll never take ahh she'll never take your name
She's undeniable when she's not the one to blame
She's underneath my skin but she'll never take my name in vain

In vain in vain in vain

Impossible girl that's fallen in love
