

Lead The Crowd

Joe Brooks

Nobody should ever tell you what to do
Nobody should ever play you like a fool
Nobody should ever make you cut your hair
Nobody, nobody owns you

It's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running
Don't ever let 'em get you down
'Cause it's your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the light to lead the crowd
Lead the crowd

Nobody should tell you how to sing along
Nobody is ever always never wrong
Nobody should take the pink from what you wear
Nobody, nobody owns you

It's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running
Don't ever let 'em get you down
'Cause it's your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the light to lead the crowd
Lead the crowd, yeah

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Somebody will always try to put you down
Somebody will push your face into the ground
But you told me, "Get up and stand on your two feet
'cause nobody, nobody owns you."

It's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running
Don't ever let 'em get you down
'Cause it's your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the light to lead the crowd

'Cause it's been a long time coming
So keep your feet running
And never let 'em get you down
'Cause this is your time coming
So stop all your fumbling
And be the light to lead the crowd
Lead the crowd

Oh, oh
