

Till My Heart Stops Beating

Joe Brooks

I can't hold it down,
Or hold it in,
Cause I got a feeling,
That I've finally found.
I've waited on you all my life,
And with no rhyme or reason,
I got knocked to the ground.

I'm in a thousand pieces and I've got no excuse,
To keep this all a secret, secret, now.

I'm never gonna let you down,
I'm never gonna leave you out,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating
And now it don't matter where you are,
I'm never gonna be that far,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating

While your eyes deny everything to me,
But they reflect just like a diamond ring, I see it, oh
And when we're together,
We're together now
So confess that this is more than we know,
A situation that if we let go,
Gonna end up regretting forever,
And ever now.

Well, I'm in a thousand pieces and I've got no excuse,
To keep this all a secret, secret, now.

I'm never gonna let you down,
I'm never gonna leave you out,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating
And now it don't matter where you are,
I'm never gonna be that far,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating

Ooooooooooooooooooooooh

I'm never gonna let you down,
I'm never gonna leave you out,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating
My heart stops beating

And now it don't matter where you are,
I'm never gonna be that far,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating
My heart stops beating

My heart stops beating
My heart stops beating
