

Boogie Baby

Joe Cocker

Hard to say I can see
The writing on the wall
I knew the time would come again
When you would fall
Pray to the man who lives in the shadow

*

Show him you're the light
Show him you're the light, boogie baby
You're my lady, my lady, boogie baby
I was gonna write you a fast song
Pretty love song
Make it a big rock and roll song
So I could watch you sway, watch you sway

(I could) Watch you sway, boogie baby

Where did you boogie tonight

You meet his eyes, steal away
I will never know the fire burnin' there
Leavin' me stoned and cold
Here's to the man who lives in the shadows

(*Repeat)

Boogie baby, boogie baby
Oh where'll you boogie tonight
