

I'll Walk in the Sunshine Again

Joe Cocker

Is that the best that you can do
Do you think that I won't make it through
You don't know where I come from
And you don't know what I'm made of

You won't haunt me anymore
I stand proud and I stand tall
There will come a day my friend
I'll walk in the sunshine again

So come on, bring on all your rain
It's only water, it won't stain
You'll turn to ashes on the ground
My sun burns through your black cloud

And you won't haunt me anymore
I stand proud and I stand tall
There will come a day my friend
I'll walk in the sunshine again
You won't haunt me anymore
I stand proud and I stand tall
And there will come a day my friend
I'll walk in sunshine again
