

Lie to Me

Joe Cocker

Lie to me,
And tell me everything is alright,
Lie to me,
And tell me that you'll stay here tonight.

Tell me that you'll never leave,
And I just try to make believe,
That everything you're tellin' me is true.

Lie to me,
Go ahead and lie to me,
Lie to me,
Go ahead and lie to me.

Lie to me
It doesn't matter anymore,
It could never be
The way it was before.

If I can hold onto you
Leave me something I can hold on to
For just a little while, won't you let me be.

Lie to me,
Go ahead and lie to me, girl
Lie to me,
Go ahead and lie to me.

Anyone can see
That you love him more than me,
Right now, baby, let me pretend
That our love will never end
Lie to me...

(Keyboards Solo)

Tell me that you'll never leave,
And I just try to make believe,
That everything you're tellin' me,
Tellin' me is true...

Lie to me,
Go ahead and lie to me, girl
Let me just say, lie to me,
Go ahead and lie to me
Won't you do it to me?

Lie to me,
Go ahead and lie to me, girl
Go ahead and lie to me, girl
Go ahead and lie to me, baby
Lie to me...

Go ahead and lie to me, baby
Won't you do it to me?
Go ahead and lie to me...
