Lie to Me

Joe Cocker

Lie to me, And tell me everything is alright, Lie to me, And tell me that you'll stay here tonight. Tell me that you'll never leave, And I just try to make believe, That everything you're tellin' me is true. Lie to me, Go ahead and lie to me, Lie to me, Go ahead and lie to me. Lie to me It doesn't matter anymore, It could never be The way it was before. If I can hold onto you Leave me something I can hold on to For just a little while, won't you let me be. Lie to me, Go ahead and lie to me, girl Lie to me, Go ahead and lie to me. Anyone can see That you love him more than me, Right now, baby, let me pretend That our love will never end Lie to me... (Keyboards Solo) Tell me that you'll never leave, And I just try to make believe, That everything you're tellin' me, Tellin' me is true... Lie to me, Go ahead and lie to me, girl Let me just say, lie to me, Go ahead and lie to me Won't you do it to me? Lie to me, Go ahead and lie to me, girl Go ahead and lie to me, girl Go ahead and lie to me, baby Lie to me... Go ahead and lie to me, baby Won't you do it to me? Go ahead and lie to me...
