

Soul Rising

Joe Cocker

Yesterday, I was out in the rain
Wondering when I'd see the sun again
Lonely hearts, baby, I wrote the book
Since she walked away without a second look

oh but now I feel good
'Cause' you look at me
The way a woman should

I feel my soul rising to a new love
No blues I can't rise above
I feel my soul rising when I'm close to you
When your with me girl
There's nothing I can't do

Yesterday I was falling apart
Picking up pieces of my broken heart
Yeah, but one touch of your healing hand
24 hours later I'm a whole new man

Yeah, and I'm stronger now
'Cause' you make the world a better place some how

I feel my soul rising to a new love
No blues I can't rise above
I feel my soul rising when I'm close to you
When your with me girl
There's nothing I can't do

I got sunshine on a brand new day
And the grey clouds have all drifted away
And there's nobody that I can't be
If it's you and me
