

Are We Even Yet

Joe Diffie

That's one for me, and one for you
Add it up and we're just two fools
And on, and on, and on, and on, it goes

You hurt me, and I hurt you woman
Like two kids we're keepin' score
Am I one, two or three heartaches ahead

Are we even yet

Are we even yet
Do we even know if we're holdin' on or lettin' go
Nobody wins, when we can't forgive and forget
Are we even yet

My words hurt, and cause you pain

Tear drops fall like pourin' rain
You cry and cry, love dies and dies some more

Revenge is sweet, when you don't talk
I'm afraid you're gonna walk
What will it take to take back the things we've said

Are we even yet

Are we even yet
Do we even know if we're holdin' on or lettin' go
Nobody wins, when we can't forgive and forget
Are we even yet
