

I Didn't Even Do It

Joe Ely

I woke up this mornin
I was half insane
And I didn't even know it
I didn't even know it
I went back to bed
I knew I had been framed
Cause I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it

Well you can't come in
No you can't come in
I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it
And you can't come in

When the telephone rang
I was thinkin' 'bout the jury
But I couldn't even face it
No I couldn't even face it

When the cops come knockin
They was knockin with a fury
I said I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it

Well you can't come in
No you can't come in
I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it
And you can't come in

When they took me to the jail
I said, "Room service, please"
They didn't even like it

When the judge said, son
Boy, get down on your knees
I said I didn't even do it
Your honor, I didn't even do it

Well you can't come in
No you can't come in
I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it
I didn't even do it
And you can't come in
