

King Pleasure Time

Joe Jackson

King Pleasure - is on a mission
To take the power from the Pope and politicians
He's come to party - and he shows it
He rules the world but not everybody knows it

It's King Pleasure Time
So show respect - get on your knees
You can't reject his right to please

King Pleasure - is gonna get you
He don't give a damn about who wants to let you
They try to nag him - they try to scold him
They build cages but no one can ever hold him
He knows your secret - he's got your number
He'll stop you working but he'll stop you getting dumber
You wanna hold him - you wanna kiss him
You can deny it but it's futile to resist him

It's King Pleasure Time
So show respect - get on your knees
You can't reject his right to please

King Pleasure - will live forever
You can't control him though you think you're pretty clever
And after every computer crashes
He'll be laughing as he's dancing on your ashes
