

Little Bit Stupid

Joe Jackson

You stole a wig from your sister
And a gun from your dad
I guess I knew when I kissed ya
You're a little bit mad
You don't care if you get sick
Living on a bubble gum
Maybe too much lipstick
Made your mouth go dumb

I have to say that we were suited
But you know what they say about Cupid
Little bit stupid
Little bit stupid

So we got ourselves messed up
And we did it with style
And the way we were dressed up
Was a little bit wild
Stack heels and tiaras
We were oh so redefined
Or maybe too much mascara
Made my eyes go blind

I don't know if we were deluded
But I know what they say about Cupid
Little bit stupid
Little bit stupid

I guess to do what me and you did
You have to be just a bit like Cupid
Little bit stupid
Little bit stupid
Little bit stupid
Just a little bit...
