

Angel

Joe Lynn Turner

I was wrong but it's alright
I learned my lesson this time
Hope is gone and I'm fading in the light
Why don't you show me a sign

Angel save me
Save me tonight
You're the only one who can
One touch away
From changing my life
Heaven is in your hands, in your hands

Words unspoken, burning in your eyes
I see the ashes of truth
Trust is broken and faith is compromised
But I still believe in you

Angel save me
Save me tonight
You're the only one who can
One touch away
From your shining light
Heaven is in your hands

Angel save me
Save me tonight
You're the only one who can
One touch away
From your shining light
