

Closer

Joe Lynn Turner

In a lonely world of fear and doubt
It's hard to find the truth sometimes
Remember love is what it's all about
And put your trembling hand in mine

Don't you think it's time to be
Everything we feel
Put your faith in you and me
Live a dream that's real
I will be waiting

Open your hear, girl, and you'll understand
(closer and closer)
If we believe, girl, I know that we can
(closer and closer)
Changing my life with a touch of your hand
Closer and closer to you

When you feel like giving up the fight
And tenderness is so hard to find
Together we'll hold back the night
It's you and me right down the line

Life is only what you choose
Make no mistake
Loneliness is all you'll lose
Now don't you hesitate
I have been waiting

Open your heart, girl, and you'll understand
(closer and closer)
If we believe, girl, I know that we can
(closer and closer)
Changing my life with a touch of your hand
Closer and closer to you

Life is only what you choose
Make no mistake
Loneliness is all you'll lose
Now don't you hesitate
I have been waiting

Open your heart, girl, and you'll understand
(closer and closer)
If we believe, girl, I know that we can
(closer and closer)
Changing my life with a touch of your hand
Closer and closer to you
