

Power Of Love

Joe Lynn Turner

Living on the wrong side of town
Can't get up they knock you down
Dead end street, no where to go
Sweat and struggle everyday
Feel your life just fade away
Break your heart and steal your soul
It's always dark before the dawn But you're the reason that I c an go on
Someday all our dreams will find us
Gonna leave the world behind us
With a little help from heaven above
Were always gonna be together
Cause we believe in forever
Baby you and I got the power of love
Lucky few, they get the breaks
Tough to lean from your mistakes
But you gotta make a stand
Through your eyes girl I can see
The man I'm supposed to be
And you take me as I am
This crazy world is so unkind
We gotta hold on to what some people never find
