

Love Is War

Joe McElderry

You've got me here with my defences down
Don't have a genius to figure out
That you're used to your bed being a battleground
There's just no way, not me
Not here, not now

Not when we've got something so strong

If love is war
Then you're a good reason to fight
Get beaten and fall, to the floor
But I know I'll survive
Take that and more
Cos your love keeps me alive

There's only one way we could better this
And simplify how crazy hard it is
I know your tendency to sabotage
I can take the torture, you won't break this heart

Not when we've got something so strong

If love is war
Then you're a good reason to fight
Get beaten and fall, to the floor
But I know I'll survive
Take that and more
Cos your love keeps me alive

Don't think for one minute
You've got to go easy on me
Cause I'm at my best
When lesser men would retreat

If love is war
Then you're a good reason to fight
Get beaten and fall, to the floor
But I know I'll survive
Take that and more
Cos your love keeps me alive

If love is war
Then you're a good reason to fight
Get beaten and fall, to the floor
But I know I'll survive
Take that and more
Cos your love keeps me alive
