Real Things

Joe Nichols

I love real things built to last Hardwood floors and stone fireplaces And lookin' back on the past

Ice cold beer, fish that fight
Wise, old bucks and old timer's
Tellin' lies and fireflies

Rainy days, I love 'em, I always have Screened in porches, my old straw hat Smell of dogwoods Early signs of spring, real things

I love real things like a hard day's work Sinkin' my hands in fresh plowed dirt And lovin' someone so much it hurts

New strings on an old guitar Moonshine in a mason jar And just feelin' alive At peace with who you are

Real things, I love 'em, I always have Like Grandma's kitchen and Grandpa's laugh Stealin' that first kiss On the front porch swing, real things

It's them real things
That I come back to every year
Like Christmas Time
With those that I hold dear

When it's real things
The truth rings so loud and clear
For those with ears to hear

I want real things like an 'I love you'
Or an amen from the very last pew
And I miss you, Dad, "Son, I miss you too"

Real things, I love 'em, I always have Like the kinfolk shoes on a welcome mat Sunday morning, hearing my mama sing Real things, I love those real things Real things
