

South Station Blues

Joe Perry

Got no place to run, got no place to hide
Sitting at the railway station, destination far behind, behind
Live my life for love, love that's hard to find
Some are givers, i'm a taker, love can make you blind, make you
blind

Got no time to lose, time you just can't find Give a dozen yesterdays to make tomorrow mine, make you mine
Got no life to live, got just borrowed time
Don't close or blink your eyes, you'll lose your chance to fly, chance to fly

Got no place to run, got no place to hide
Live my life for love, love that's hard to find
Some are givers, i'm a taker, love can make you blind, make you blind.
