

Andrea

Joe Purdy

You were standing tall
In the corner of a light
While everybody talked
I just stared at you

Singing on
And on and on and on
Singing on
And on and on and on
And on

And I was moving closer
You pretended not to notice
I was waiting on a sign
Then you looked up and smiled

Singing on
And on and on and on
Singing on
And on and on and on

Oh Andrea, oh I think I'm sinking down
Oh Andrea, honey I want you around

And when you turned to me
Your hair fell in your eyes
And I moved it away
And you looked so surprised

Singing on
And on and on and on
Singing on
And on and on and on
And on...
And now...

And you said you loved my charm
And then you took my arm
And then we slipped away to the burgandy rooms
Our old soul music played

Singing on
And on and on and on
Singing on
And on and on and on
Singing on
And on and on and on
Singing on
And on and on and on

Oh Andrea, oh I think I'm sinking down
Oh Andrea, honey I want you around
Oh Andrea, oh I think I'm sinking down
Oh Andrea, honey I want you around

And you were standing tall
And on and on and on
