

Come Back Down Joe

Joe Purdy

Lights from the motor bike shine through the bars on my face as i walked through the alley with a smile and guitar case and i climb on the stairs and reflect on the night we spent and im thinking about what you said and what it meant

you said, come back down,

go down to see her in the late afternoon she ain't easy to find you know shes always moving shes kicking back coffee with anthony telling jokes saying, girl if we don't go soon we're gonna miss the show

she says, come back down,

drive down to see if we can get on the list to play so i go in walking like i own the place and we wait our turn, yeah, but we dont wait long me and jenny, we sing our songs in a row we're on a roll

she says, come back down,
come back down, joe
come back down,
come back down

the scarecrows in full bloom tonight as they take the stage we say goodbye to zachari and we get on our way and on the way i said tell me a story please she says did you ever hear the one about the duck that was lost in the street says i huffed and i puffed and i shooed him away hell, i stopped the sunset in the middle of the day i watched him grow wings, and fly away

the nights almost through she wants to sing me a song i love how you sing girl, But its just a little too long because theres only four seasons and this ones almost gone yeah, these nights feel so good but this one's almost gone says, come back down,

come back down joe,
come back down,
come back down,
come back down,
come back down joe, tomorrow
