

Trouble

Joe Purdy

Trouble comes and trouble she goes
And trouble's got a key to my front door
And you come and you stay just as long as you please
Even when I ask nicely for you to leave
Yeah trouble
Yeah trouble
Well trouble if you ain't got nothin' nice to say
Then trouble why don't you go away
Well trouble I need your help this time
See there's this beautiful girl and she's with some stupid guy
If they could break up, oh and I could move in
Then I think you and me well, we could be friends
Yeah trouble
Yes trouble
Well trouble if you would just help me win
Then trouble you could go away again
Trouble I've asked you repeatedly
But you just won't move you won't even humor me
So I'm only gonna tell you one more time
If you don't leave then I guess I'll cry
Well if you don't leave then I guess I'll cry
Cry trouble
Cry trouble
Well trouble I hope that you've enjoyed your stay
Now trouble why won't you go away
Yeah trouble why don't you go away
Yeah trouble why don't you go away
Go away
Please go away
