

A Woman Can Change A Man

Joe Tex

A man can say what he won't do
But if she really, really wants to
A woman can change a man
She can make him weak
Or make him strong
Make him do right
Or she can make him do wrong
'Cause everything a man does
He does it for a woman
Hmmm, mmm hmmm

Now I'm not saying that this is true with all men
'Cause as you know there are exceptions to all the rules
But if you ask the average man what is he living and working for from day to day
I bet nine out of ten of those men would say
They would say that I'm livin' and workin' for my little woman
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

Man can say that you can't tie him down
But if she really wants him around
A woman can change a man
She can make life bright
Or make it dim
She can give him children
That look exactly like him
Because everything a man does
He does it for a woman
