Fun

Joe Walsh

I'm gonna have my own private party Gonna invite everyone I know We'll all have our own personal celebration I'm gonna send out invitations To all my friends -- your friends -- and their friends too We'll all go on a permanent paid vacation Wouldn't that be fun? Fun And if anyone asks you I like having fun Fun I like having fun Here we go now Well if I was king I'd sign a proclamation And if I was president I'd pass a law And I'd call for a full-blown Senate investigation Of everyone who wasn't having fun Fun If something ain't fun why do it? I'd rather have fun That's all there is to it
