

I'll Tell the World

Joe Walsh

If I could show you
All of the things, that you'd love to see
And I'd like to start you laughing
All that you want, is my sympathy

Time won't bring back, all the time, going back
So just for the moment
Let your heart, let it fly away
And I'll tell the world about you
In all of my dreams
