Two Sides to Every Story

Joe Walsh

Well I don't know, but I've been told Two sides to every story The one is right and the other is wrong Guess it depends which side your on

'Cause one man's blessing is another man's curse One man's drink is another man's thirst One man's pleasure is another man's pain One man's loss is another man's gain One man's lie is another man's truth There's two sides to every story

Well, good guys, bad guys all the same Good guys win, bad guys get blamed I don't care what side you're on You might be right, you might be wrong

And one man's freedom is another man's prison One man's honor is another man's shame One man's guilty, one man isn't There's two sides to every story

One man's heaven is another man's hell One man's buy is another man's sell One man's day is another man's night One man's peace is another one's fight One man's loss is another one's glory (glory) There's two sides to every story

There's two sides to every story

There's two sides (two sides) to every story
