

Blame Her Broken Heart on Me

Joe

Oh, yeah, yeah
Did you see this scars, trying to get through this flesh
Making this way to my heart
Wanting to destroy whats left
Watch your soul
Is that why you appear, cause I watch you fail
Cause I can watch your lover, is pulling me back
Brick by brick, your love is building me up
You're still so perfect, yeah

Now, look at me
I'm stronger than Ive ever been, yeah!
Where I am is no longer where Ive been
Now, look at me
I'm stronger than Ive ever been, oh!
I'm stronger at the time
All because of you!

Wait till you see my smile
Wait till you see whats next!
Wait till you see this light that's burning through my chest!
Hey, watch how high I fly
How fast this feeling sways
Oh, never ever would have hoped this would all be available to me again
Oh, but then I failed your love!
Its putting me back brick, your love has built me up
You're still so perfect, yeah

Now, look at me
I'm stronger than Ive ever been, yeah!
Where I am is no longer where Ive been
Now, look at me
I'm stronger than Ive ever been, oh!
I'm stronger at the time
All because of

You've taken everywhere Ive been
And promise that I wont have to go there again, again
This time we will get away

Cause I'm stronger than Ive ever been, yeah!
Where I am is no longer where Ive been
Now, look at me
I'm stronger than Ive ever been, oh!
I'm stronger at the time
And its all because of you
All because of you!
All because of you!
I'm stronger!

Oh boy, with anything
But I'm stronger!
I'm still missing pieces after everything
But I'm stronger!
Cant believe a girl she says she would never leave
But I'm stronger!
But if shed never left, I would have never seen

That I'm stronger!
You make me, you make me stronger!
(You make me)
Strong, strong, strong!
Oh, oh, oh stronger!
