

Bridges

Joe

There we stood at a crossroads that day
And you said you ready to move on What to do with heartbroken lady
Oh I just didn't know

So you put me away
but I never wanted to go
Girl I never ever wanted to end this way
Despite of the pain girl I gotta let you know
I'll be coming back for you one day
(So don't let it burn)
Don't burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you
I know it hurts but don't let it burn girl
don't burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you in this arms is where I belong

You said you wouldn't forgive me for all the wrong I've done (for the wrong I've done)
I'm foolish boy neglecting your heart to all the feelings we're gone

So you put me away but I never wanted to go
Ooh I never ever wanted to end this way
Despite of the pain girl I gotta let you know
I'll be coming back for you one day
(Don't let it burn)
Don't burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you
I know it hurts but don't it burn
So don't burn the bridges cos I'll be coming back to you see in your arms is where I belong

So I'm gonna find
I'm gonna find...
Ooh cos the key from my heart beating without you
I'm gonna fight until I win your affection
Please don't let it burn (no)
Please don't let it burn
Baby don't,
Don't let burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you
I know it hurts
But don't let it burn
Don't the bridges cos I'll be coming back to you
In your arms is where I belong (ooh)
Don't burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you (hey)
I know it hurts but don't let it burn
Don't burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you
In your arms is where I belong
Don't burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you (yeh yeh)
Don't burn no bridges cos I'll be coming back to you (yeah!)
